

Andrew is a Wichita native, born and raised, and an experienced attorney focusing on Kansas estate planning, wills, trusts, probate, and administration.

Graduating first from Wichita State University, Andrew attended Ave Maria School of Law, where he finished in the top 25% of his class. He interned at the United States District Court, District of Kansas, under the Honorable Judge Eric Melgren and studied under Samuel Blanco, Esq., for a year. In 2013, he established the Law Office of Andrew Rowe in his hometown. For a decade, Andrew has helped members of the Kansas community plan for peace of mind and has been recognized as a Super Lawyer Rising Star for six years.

As a commitment to his clients and his professional growth, Andrew is a member of the following associations:

- Wichita Bar Association
- Kansas Bar Association
- Wichita Estate Planning Council
- Wichita Estate Planning and Probate Committee
- WealthCounsel

Beyond his career, Andrew has a wide range of hobbies and interests. He serves on the advisory board for Fiat Ministries, a testament to his commitment to community service. He enjoys reading, Colorado trips, and trying new recipes. In addition to his legal expertise, he has extensive experience in hide-and-seek with his two-year-old daughter, a role that brings him joy and balance. Andrew has been happily married to Kathleen for four years, and the Rowe family are parishioners at Magdalen Catholic Church.
